Welcome to our 84th annual New Windsor Fair and Rodeo!

President's Message

Welcome to New Windsor, and the 84th New Windsor Fair, Rodeo, and Horse Show. This year the board is excited to present another great event full of delicious fair food, carnival rides, and beautiful rodeo livestock. Make sure to bring all your family and friends out to enjoy a full weekend of entertainment for everyone. We as a committee take pride in the continuation of generation after generation attending, participating, and volunteering at our event. As I have taken on the role of the First Female President I enjoy seeing multiple generations attending our community event year after year. This year our volunteers have also been working diligently to make improvements to ensure we put on the best show in the Midwest. A huge thank you to everyone in the past and present for all they have done for the tradition of our rodeo. Let's rodeo.

Sincerely,
Kelly J. Weber, President

Village of New Windsor

On behalf of The Village of New Windsor Board of Trustees, I would like to welcome you all to a widespread community tradition; The New Windsor Fair and Rodeo. The highlight of the summer, The New Windsor Fair and Rodeo is a "Homecoming" of sorts, and an enjoyable time for family and friends to come together. The pride that is the NWR is unmatched, and would not be possible without the hardworking men and women that volunteer their time and efforts into putting on the Biggest Little Rodeo In The Midwest. Congratulations to the Fair and Rodeo for another successful year.

The Village of New Windsor
Village President Jim Starceovich

A Message to Our Guests

Attending the Rodeo

Seating for our rodeo performances is general admission. The south grandstand next to the bucking chutes is reserved for handicapped and sponsor seating. We have spectators who walk a few blocks to the rodeo grounds as well as some who drive many hours to attend our event, and many others in between. In order to be fair to everyone who attends our rodeo, blankets, seat cushions, portable chairs, back rests, and any other form of seat cushion or any kind of marking device may not be used to reserve seats. Any blanket, seat cushion, etc. that is placed on the bleachers must be occupied at all times. Any blanket/seat cushion that is not occupied will be removed, regardless of the time or day. Allowances will be made when some members of a group or family are using rest rooms, obtaining concessions, etc. At least one member of a family or group must occupy a blanket/seat cushion at all times.

We ask that the areas that are designated handicapped seating be used only by those who have a medical condition that will not permit them to use any other seating. Please be considerate to those who are in wheel chairs and those who must use walkers, canes, etc. The handicapped areas are for their use.

We thank everyone for their cooperation in past years eliminating lawn chairs and other portable seating in the area between the arena fence and the first row of bleachers. This area must be kept clear of all portable seating to allow easy access to the seating area by spectators and emergency personnel.

Thank you for your cooperation

New Windsor Drill Team

Organized and founded by Ron Partlow in 1972, the New Windsor Drill Team is marking its 52nd Anniversary at the New Windsor Rodeo. Original Team members included Ron's children as well as other members of local 4-H Clubs. In the earlier years under the direction of Ron, the Drill Team performed at rodeos, fairs, and parades in several States throughout the Midwest. The red/white/blue colors of the Drill Team flag, tack, and clothing were inspired by Ron's patriotic passion and love of America.

Leland and Nan Martin joined the Drill Team family in 1987 when their children became members. Even after their kids became too old to remain members of this youth team, the Martins continued to provide assistance to Ron for the next several years. After Ron's passing in 2009, they agreed to step into the role of Leaders to continue the long-standing tradition of youth members on horseback performing a precision drill with enthusiasm and pride.

Since its beginning, there have been more than 600 members on the Drill Team and probably more horses and ponies of various breeds than kids. It may look easy as you watch them perform in the arena, but kids and horses must be able to perform difficult maneuvers and ride with skill while carrying a flag. When you add the rodeo activity both in and out of the arena with sponsor flags, lights, music, spectators, livestock, and a carnival in the background, it becomes even more challenging. Being part of the Drill Team requires a lot of hard work, practice, and dedication. The practice season begins each year on the first Monday in June and continues each Monday night throughout the summer up to the long-awaited New Windsor Rodeo performance during the third week in August. Many of the original members have continued their relationship with the Drill Team as their children and grandchildren have also joined the Team. This year's Drill Team has several members who represent the second generation in their family to participate in this unique and wonderful sport.

The Drill Team no longer travels, but they are proud to represent New Windsor when they perform as the "New Windsor Drill Team" in their red/white/blue attire at this Rodeo and Parade, along with appearances at local County Fairs and area parades.

Our thanks to the parents and grandparents who support their children and grandchildren as they participate in this memorable experience. We also want to thank Ron Partlow's family for their support following the loss of their father/grandfather, founder of this great organization. And a HUGE thanks to the New Windsor Fair Board for their continued support over the last 51 years by providing the youth in this community an opportunity to do what they love ... ride their horse with pride at the NEW WINDSOR RODEO!

Hampton Rodeo Company

Hampton Rodeo Company began in 1986 with a handful of small rodeos in Arkansas and Oklahoma. Kevin Hampton was only 18 but he planned on working hard towards a bright future in the Stock Contractor business. His efforts have paid off – his company has been honored many times over for its outstanding bucking stock, exceptional personnel, and production capabilities. In 1998 Hampton Rodeo Company was named the International Professional Rodeo Association Stock Contractor of the Year, an award they received for 29 consecutive years! The Hamptons have also received over 15 World Champion bucking horses and bulls awards in the IPRA, and Kevin's wife Gina is a 19-time winner of the IPRA Secretary of the Year.

Rodeo is a family affair for the Hamptons, with their sons Kevin Lane and Jay Allen traveling to every rodeo to assist in any number of ways. Kevin's father and mother are also involved in the family business.

Hampton Rodeo Company produces over 20 rodeos and five bull rides every year, including the IPRA's oldest and longest running rodeos in Ozark, Missouri, Sallisaw, Oklahoma, and the oldest right here in New Windsor.

NEW WINDSOR BULL BUCK

Powered by Pioneer Hi-Breds

The New Windsor Rodeo is pleased to present the 10th New Windsor Bull Buck.

As the final event of every rodeo performance, the New Windsor Bull Buck will feature cowboys competing for over $2,000 in prize money every night. Sanctioned by the National Federation of Professional Bull Riders (NFPB), some of the best up and coming bull riders in North America will compete on some of the toughest bulls in the country to take home the top prize each night. There will also be a special prize and cash bonus for the highest overall average for all three performances combined.

Complete information on the NFPB can be found at their website www.nfp-bullriders.com.

Contestants will enter directly with the NFPB.

Bull riding is the most popular event in rodeo, and we will start every rodeo with the IPRA bull riding, and end the night with the New Windsor Bull Buck.

Special New Windsor NFPB Bull Ride Champion Buckle

A special award will be presented to the highest scoring NFPB bull rider overall for all three nights combined at the New Windsor Rodeo. The winner will receive a custom made unique belt buckle.

*Buckle presented by Leonard and Brenda Luxmore and Family
In Memory of CPL Bryant J. Luxmore*

Rodeo Announcer Tom Nealy

Tom Nealy returns to New Windsor for his 11th year as rodeo announcer. Tom grew up in southern Iowa where his family farmed and trained horses. He followed his brothers into rodeo and competed at the high school and intercollegiate levels, and then in the International Professional Rodeo Association. He was a contestant in the Steer Wrestling many times right here in New Windsor. His steer wrestling career was cut short after a broken leg, and he moved to the announcer stand. Tom says, "It's been good. No entry fees, you get paid every time, and you don't get hurt." Tom has announced over 600 rodeos in various associations, and has been selected four times as the Iowa Rodeo Cowboys Association Announcer of the Year. Tom's approach to the announcer's job is to keep people informed about the contestants, the livestock, the rules, and serve as master of ceremonies. "When the rodeo is over, I think I've had more fun than anyone - I love it!"

Awards

Awards will be made by the single judge system, unless in the judgment of the superintendent of the department, more are required.

No person shall act as a judge in any lot in which he or she may be interested as an exhibitor, agent, or employee of an exhibitor or otherwise, and if such case shall be presented, the superintendent of the department may remove such interested judge, or substitute another judge temporarily.

The award of premiums at the Fair shall be confined to entries made in the premium list.

No animal or article deemed unworthy shall be awarded a premium.

First premium will be paid on one entry when considered worthy by the judge.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of an entry, or any other important matter which the judge feels incompetent to decide, they shall at once report the same to the superintendent or committee chair for decision. Such matters will be referred to the Executive Committee for decision. Rulings of the Executive Committee will be final.

The Board reserves the right to pay the premiums pro rate if the net proceeds of the Association are not sufficient to pay the premiums in full.

Temporary buying, borrowing, or hiring animals or articles for an exhibit is strictly prohibited. Any exhibitor found to have violated this rule forfeits all premiums.

Articles of manufacture, fine arts, and agriculture products in order to be entitled to receive premiums must be owned, or have been executed or raised by the exhibitor. The superintendent will see that this rule is strictly enforced. Persons violating this rule will forfeit the premium and will not be allowed to exhibit in any department or class for two years.

Superintendents and committee chairpersons are instructed that if they have any good reason to believe any exhibitor, by false entry, or otherwise attempts to deceive the judges or the public, and obtain premiums by misrepresentation they shall report the facts to the Board of Directors. Exhibitors found to have violated this rule will be expelled by the Board of Directors for a minimum of two years.

Objections to any person serving as judge may be submitted to the superintendent or committee chairperson in writing, by exhibitor(s) in that class prior to making any award, giving good and sufficient reasons therefore, and upon which superintendents shall have full power to act and decide.

The decision of the judges shall be final and no appeal will be considered except in case of protest. Protests must be submitted to the department superintendent or committee chair in writing. Protests will be heard by the Executive Committee, whose ruling and decision will be final.

Any exhibitor attempting to interfere with the judges during a justification will be promptly excluded from competition.

The public will not be allowed in the departments while judging is going on. Each award and notice of protest, if any be made, must be in writing by the superintendent in blank page opposite the entry.

The entry books must be returned by the superintendent or chairperson of each department to the secretary, properly certified by the superintendent or chairperson of each department to the secretary, properly certified to be the judges as soon as the awards in each case are completed.

Each superintendent shall exercise great care in preserving and returning the entry books of the department, as all checks for premiums are authorized only upon the entries contained therein.

The secretary will not issue an order on the treasurer for premiums on articles removed from the exhibition before it closes, unless permission for removal was granted by the superintendent or committee chair. Superintendents and chairpersons are instructed to report to the Secretary any violation of this rule.

Although the grounds are policed during the fair to prevent damage to and loss of exhibits, the Association is not responsible for damage to, loss of, or stolen exhibits. Exhibits at the fair are the sole risk of the exhibitor.

Designation of Awards

Blue ribbons designate first premium; red ribbons designate second; white ribbons designate third premium.

Eighty-Four Years: From the New Windsor Homecoming and Horse Show to the New Windsor Rodeo

Over the years of changing Association officers and directors, many of the early official records of the New Windsor Fair, Rodeo, and Horse Show Association have been lost. But some old fair books and newspaper clippings give us a glimpse of the seventy-eight year history of the event.

Sometime in 1934, a group of New Windsor residents decided to hold an event that would serve as a gathering for current and former New Windsor residents. This "Homecoming and Horse Show" was held in mid-August in 1935, and featured the horse shows, carnival, agriculture and home economics exhibits that were common at country fairs of the day. The first event was a success and was held again in 1936. After two successful events, the men responsible for organizing the event determined it was time to become an "official" organization. On August 6, 1937, The New Windsor Homecoming and Horse Show was chartered as a not-for-profit corporation, whose purpose was "Promoting the improvement of Live Stock and Agriculture Products and stimulating good will in the community by holding an annual exhibition and entertainment". In 1939 the name of the organization was changed to "The New Windsor Fair and Horse Show Association" and the name of the event changed to "The New Windsor Fair and Horse Show".

From 1935 to 1941 the event featured pony, light horse, and draft horse shows; and displays of agriculture products and equipment. Competitions were held for pastries, baked goods -the winners received five pounds of flour, preserved fruits and vegetables, as well as dairy, apiary, syrups, and domestic arts. Admission was $0.25 for adults and $0.10 for children. Entertainments included drill teams and drum and bugle corps. In 1941 "The Great Gretonas" were the featured entertainment. This six person high wire act that performed forty feet above the arena with no nets had appeared "in every civilized country in the world and at all the large theaters, hippodromes and circuses".

Many events that are part of the current fair, rodeo, and horse show were part of the first events. Horse shows, displays of agriculture products and domestic arts and hobbies, the parade through town, and the show being a three day event held the third week in August were all part of the fair from the very beginning.

World War II forced the cancellation of the event from 1942 through 1946. When it resumed in 1947, a rodeo was added to the program on Thursday and Friday afternoons -the event was held on Wednesday-Thursday-Friday. Bronc Riding with Saddle, Bronc Riding-Bareback, and Steer Riding were the events in this first rodeo. Entry fee was $2.00 with the winner receiving $25.00. With the addition of the rodeo, the name of the three day event was changed to The New Windsor Fair, Rodeo, and Horse Show. Special mention was made that food at the fairgrounds would be provided by the Lutheran and Presbyterian Churches and the New Windsor Legion Auxiliary.

In 1949, the Domestic Arts Department made special mention that the New Windsor Fair was taking part in The National Crochet Contest, with the winner going on to state and national competition. Advertising in the 1949 fair book gives a glimpse of the lifestyles of that time. Christy Hardware in New Windsor makes special mention in their full page ad that they are open until 10:00 p.m. every Saturday night, and the Galesburg Drive-In Theatre encourages patrons to "Come as you are and sit in your car".

SHERRARD FFA

EST. 1931

The rodeo continued to grow in importance through the 1950's, with new events and performances held every day of the fair. A Wild Horse Race, called "The Greatest Event in Rodeo" was added in 1952. It was dropped in 1953, and appeared once more in 1961. Another event had a one year trial in 1955 when Wild Cow Milking was a rodeo event. A Wild Calf Scramble was tried in 1957, and was replaced by the Junior Calf Ride for boys and girls ages 13-16 from 1958 to 1960. Calf Roping and Bull Dogging were added to the rodeo in 1954, and Steer Riding was replaced with Bull Riding.

The rodeos were held during the afternoon until 1954, when the rodeo performances were held on Wednesday and Friday nights. Thursday night featured Society and Western Horse Shows as well as special entertainment after the horse show. Drum and Bugle Corps and Drill Teams were popular attractions for many years after the horse show. The Kewanee Black Knights Drum and Bugle Corps, the Debutantes Drum and Bugle Corps, The Knoxville Drill Team and the Illinois City Drill Team all appeared at the New Windsor Fair and Horse Show during the 1950's and early 1960's.

The village of New Windsor celebrated its Centennial in 1957, and the fair and horse show expanded to a four day event from 1955 through 1957, with a rodeo performance being the main Saturday night attraction. To celebrate the Centennial, the 1957 event featured a Centennial Pageant, Dance, Beard Judging, Sun Bonnet Sue Contest, and a Threshing Bee.

During the 1950's through the early 1970's, musical entertainment prior to the evening's activities was provided by local bands and musical groups. The Winola High School Band, Joy Military Band, Galesburg Community Legion Band, Sherrard High School Band, and local organists Diane and Carolyn Rice, performed before the evening's rodeo or horse show. Special musical guests also made appearances. George Runquists One Man Band appeared in 1967, and Red Blanchard, who hosted the Saturday Night Barn Dance on WLS radio in Chicago during the 1950's appeared in 1970.

During the 1940's through the mid 1970's, the fairgrounds became a tent city the week of the fair. There were no permanent buildings at the fairgrounds, so tents were used for the draft horses, commercial displays and exhibits, agricultural exhibits, and food stands. This was an all-day affair that required a great deal of manpower to drive all the tent stakes and raise the tents. The New Windsor Grade School Building (now converted into apartments), located just south of the fairgrounds east entrance, was used to house and display the domestic arts, hobbies, and art departments. The first permanent building was erected in 1965 by the American Legion to house their bingo games. Since then, permanent structures have been built to house all the exhibits and commercial displays, church food stands, storage, and ticket offices.

The rodeo arena also underwent major changes. While the arena size and location has remained the same, the chutes, pens and seating have undergone major changes. During the early years of the event, bleachers around the arena were borrowed from the football fields of surrounding school districts. This required the dissembling of the bleachers, usually only six rows high, transporting them to the fairgrounds, putting them up around the arena, and then taking them down after the fair and rodeo, returning them to their respective schools, and putting them back up. As funds would allow, the Association purchased permanent bleachers and increased seating capacity that was measured in the hundreds on wooden bleachers to seating measured in the thousands with the steel and aluminum structures. The Association has also replaced all the wooden bucking chutes and pens with the modern facilities that exist today. The early arena looked more like a well worn football field or cow pasture, with grass growing everywhere except in front of the bucking chutes. The unfortunate cowboy who got bucked-off had a very hard landing compared to the relative "soft" landing cowboys have in today's well maintained arena.

The decade of the 1960's brought more changes to the event. In 1960 and 1961, the Sod Savage Club of New Windsor, a group of go-cart and motorcycle racers, held exhibition go-cart races during the rodeo performances. Many times the racing excitement was lost in all the dust created by the racing. The first Kiddie Parade was held in 1961, and has been a part of the event ever since. The rodeo continued to grow in importance and attendance. Girl's Barrel racing was added to the rodeo program in 1962. Team Roping and Cutting Horse Completion was tried for a few years, but not added permanently to the rodeo program. The major change occurred in 1966 when the days of the event were changed from the original Wednesday-Thursday-Friday format, to Thursday-Friday-Saturday. The Rodeo had become the signature event of the fair, and as a result, the traditional Society and Western Horse Show held the second night of the event was replaced by the rodeo that had been held that afternoon. Horse Shows were moved to Friday (for local riders, and later junior riders) and Saturday (western) afternoons. The parade through town that had been held at 1:00 p.m. Thursday afternoon, the day after the fair and rodeo opened was moved to 4:00 p.m. (later 5:00 p.m.) Thursday afternoon and became the kick-off event for the fair's activities.

New events and activities were added in the 1970's. The New Windsor Drill Team made its first appearance in 1972, and has been a part of the rodeo program ever since. The New Windsor Jaycettes was formed and it conducted the first Queen Contest in 1975. High School Calf Roping was held prior to the afternoon horse shows from 1977 to 1979.

The most memorable "Specialty Act" appeared at the New Windsor Rodeo in 1980. A week of heavy rain had left the rodeo arena a quagmire of mud and water that was knee deep in places. Local hardware store owner Art Willems offered $50 to anyone who would ride around the arena in a scoop shovel pulled by a horse. Someone took him up on the offer and after a "hot lap" around the arena, the mud covered rider was given his $50 in front of the bucking chutes!

In 1982, New Windsor celebrated its 125th anniversary. A Quasquintennial pageant was held the night before the fair opened, and a historical parade opened each rodeo performance. The Association's logo, the "NWR" inside an oval, was first used in 1985. With running becoming popular with more and more people, the New Windsor Rodeo Run was added to the fair's events in 1988.

In 1990 the Local Horse Show on Friday afternoon was changed to a Youth Horse Show for 4-H members interested in horsemanship and showing horses. Team Roping was permanently added as a rodeo event in 1991. The New Windsor Fair Auxiliary sponsored the first Princess Contest in 1992, and the Flea Market was added to the fair in 1993.

The top rodeo specialty acts in the country appeared at the New Windsor Rodeo during the 1990's. The One Armed Bandit, The Gatney Family Trick Riders, Bob Johnson's Overland Stage Coach, and the Thornton Family have all appeared in the arena, some on multiple occasions. And local musical talents Missy Vail, Eileen Randall, and Dave Schatteman have performed prior to the rodeo.

The changes and improvements continued during the past fifteen years. New grandstands and buildings have been erected. New events have been added to the rodeo, including Cowgirl's Breakaway Roping and a second Bull Riding has been added to the rodeo performances. Some of the best specialty acts in the rodeo business, including Dusti Crain-Dickerson and Blake Goode have performed during the rodeo.

Some things have changed over the years. Most of the directors and committee members who were responsible for the 25th New Windsor Fair, Rodeo and Horse Show in 1964 are now gone, and many of those remaining are retired. Many who helped make the 50th New Windsor Rodeo a success in 1989 are still around, some retired, but many are still active in the Association in some manner.

In their place, as new generations of directors and committee members are added to the Association, they continue the traditions that were started in 1935. Some continue a family tradition of involvement that goes back to the beginnings of the event. Others step forward to help in any manner they can.

Some things have remained the same. The Lutheran and Presbyterian Church stands still serve the best food you will find at any fairgrounds. The Edwards River Antique Tractors are on display every year, and there is bingo in the Legion building. The New Windsor Drill Team performs at every rodeo performance. Some of its members the third generation in their family to be part of this tradition. And Thursday's Parade gets bigger and bigger and bigger.

Through eighty-one years of changes, some things have remained constant. The horse shows, agriculture exhibits, domestic arts and hobbies, and parade have been a part of every New Windsor Fair since 1935.

The original Directors had a motto that was published inside the front cover of the Premium Books for three decades: "With your help, we can make this year's event the best ever".

That motto is still true today. It is now found on the front cover.
